

"Securus judicat orbis terrarum"

The society promotes the faith of the Catholic Church in Oxford University. In 1878 Oxford's Catholics established the society as a means of renewing the Church's life within the University. Since then the society has continued this mission, working alongside the Catholic Chaplaincy and local churches.

Hilary Term Events

The Society meets on Thursdays at the University Catholic Chaplaincy at 7pm for a free home-cooked dinner served with wine. Following dinner, we welcome a guest speaker at 8pm covering a wide range of topical issues over the course of the term. After the talk, we have a period of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, followed by Benediction and Compline. We end the evening by socialising over a drink at our very own Newman Bar. All University members are welcome, Catholic or not!

First Week	- Dr Paul Shrimpton Conscience before Conformity: How Newman inspired Nazi Resistance	Fifth Week	- Mass and Pre-Lenten Cocktail Party Dress code: Black tie
Second Week	- Mgr John Armitage Consecrating England: Our Lady's Dowry	Sixth Week	- Fra' John Eidinow The Work of the Companions: The Society's Lent Appeal
Third Week	- HI&RH Archduke Imre Blessed Karl of Austria: My great-grandfather	Seventh Week	- Dr Helen Watt Infertility & Fertility Treatments: What are the issues?
