The Newman Society promotes the Catholic Faith in the University of Oxford. In 1878, Oxford's Catholics established the Society as a means of renewing the Church's life in the University. Since then, the Society has continued this mission, working alongside the Catholic Chaplaincy and other local churches.

HILARY TERM

2021

Hilary Term Events

The Society meets at 20:00 on Thursdays at the Oxford University Catholic Chaplaincy for a talk which will be live-streamed from our YouTube channel; our guest speakers cover a wide range of topical issues over the course of the term. After the talk, we have a period of Adoration, then Solemn Benediction and Compline, followed by some social time on Zoom. All University members are welcome, whether Catholic or otherwise!

First Week	Fr Richard Conrad, O.P. St Thomas Aquinas on God's Mystery and Friendship	Fifth Week	Professor Gerard Kilroy Edmund Campion's Oxford
Second Week	Fr Daniel Lloyd The Ordinariate and Ecumenism	Sixth Week	Fr Marcus Holden Turning Angels into Angels: the Gregorian Mission and the Conversion of England
Third Week	Abbot Hugh Allen, O.Praem. The Gospel at the Peripheries: the Faith in Splendid Isolation	Seventh Week	Bishop Philip Egan Faith, Renewal, and Evangelisation in Today's Secular World
Fourth Week (N.B. On Tuesday not Thursday)	St Thomas More Lecture: Professor David Jones Thomas More and John Donne on "Assisted Dying"	Eighth Week	Dr Caroline Farey Seeing Salvation: The Vocation of Sacred Art (An Illustrated Lecture)

N.B. Unfortunately our usual format of preceding the evening with a free home-cooked dinner, together with the social time at the bar afterwards, has had to be suspended due to Covid; the format of these meetings is subject to change in accordance with governmental restrictions.
