Portrait of St John Henry Newman in 1844, painted by George Richmond

The Newman Society promotes the Catholic Faith in the University of Oxford. In 1878, Oxford's Catholics established the Society as a means of renewing the Church's life in the University. Since then, the Society has continued this mission, working alongside the Catholic Chaplaincy and other local churches.

TRINITY TERM

Trinity Term Events

The Society meets on Thursday evenings. Due to current restrictions, we are unable to meet in person, so talks are broadcast live on our YouTube channel at 8pm, with weekly guest speakers who cover a wide range of topics over the course of the term. After the talk, Adoration, Benediction and Compline is livestreamed from the University Chaplaincy, and a Zoom social follows. All members of the University are welcome, Catholic or not!

| | | | |
|-------------|--|--------------|--|
| First Week | Canon John Udris G. K. Chesterton: Sanity and Sanctity | Fifth Week | Joanna Bogle Men, Women, and the Church |
| Second Week | Prof. Stephen Bullivant Why the Church Shrank, and How It Might Grow | Sixth Week | Bishop Kenneth Nowakowski Developing Ecumenical Understanding in Post-Soviet Ukraine |
| Third Week | Her Excellency Sally Axworthy, MBE UK-Holy See Relations in the Time of Pope Francis | Seventh Week | Dom. Bede Rowe Are We Losing Sight of the Jews... Again? From Nostra Aetate to Universal Brotherhood |
| Fourth Week | Rev. Prof. Joseph La Porte Church and Media: Critical Thinking in a High-Speed News Society | Eighth Week | Sacred Heart Dinner (Subject to restrictions) |

N.B. The current roadmap for easing restrictions indicates that, from 4th week, we will be able to meet in person again. Evenings will begin with a free home-cooked meal at 7pm, in the Newman Room at the Chaplaincy, keeping to the 'rule of six', continuing with the talk at the usual time of 8pm. The Committee are monitoring the situation carefully and look forward to returning to in-person operations as soon as it is safe to do so.
